DEMANDED THE BOY-STEALERS.

Westchester Authorities to Ask for Their Extradition.

New York Law Five Times as Severe as that of Connecticut.

WESTCHESTER, Feb. 5.—The authorities here are taking active steps to secure the custody of the three kidnappers, Charles E. Waterbury, Samuel Sutherland and John McCann, who are now in the jail at Greenwich, Conn., held for stealing little Ward Waterbury from his parents last Monday.

Charles E. Waterbury and John McCann were yesterday held to appear at the Supreme Court in Stamford, Conn., Feb. 10, and Sutherland's examination was postponed until tomorrow in Justice Hoyt's court in Greenwich.

District Attorney Platt claims that the Westchester County authorities clearly have jurisdiction of the case because Farmer Charles E. Waterbury, the father of the boy, lives in the county, and the church and school where the kidnappers met the boy and abducted him is also within its limits.

The District Attorney's object is to have the three men indicted in this state, and then make a requisition upon the Connecticut authorities for the extradition of the prisoners.

The punishment for kidnapping is more severe in this state than it is in Connecticut, the extreme penalty here being fifteen years imprisonment, while in Connecticut it is only three years and a nominal fine.

The Grand Jury of Westchester County is not in session, having adjourned yesterday until next Tuesday. The jurors have been reconvened by District Attorney Platt, who has issued subpoenas to Charles E. Waterbury, Mrs. Waterbury, their little son Ward and other persons, summoning them to appear before the Grand Jury at White Plains today to give testimony against the kidnappers.

As soon as the indictments are found, District Attorney Platt says, he will apply for the extradition of the three men. He does not anticipate any reluctance on the part of the Connecticut officials to comply with his requisition.

There is no doubt that Charles E. Waterbury is the kidnapper-in-chief of the "River Boys." When he found after his arrest that McCann had confessed everything he was experiencing the stern reality of colored law, he was frightened, and told the constable that he would make a clean breast of the whole business.

"Westote the boy," he said, "and I wouldn't give a— for anything if it wasn't for my wife and boy. I lost one boy and I have had lots of sickness in my family."

"I have been in debt and in bad luck. Everything went against me and I thought I might raise some money by stealing the boy."

The people at Long Ridge are talking of holding a thanksgiving jubilee over the recovery of the kidnapped boy.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Horses that Will Run for Purse at Guttenberg To-Day.

A race for two-year-olds at half a mile is the feature of the card at Guttenberg to-day. In it are entered Fritz, Maud P. Rilly, Miss Hess, Lisa and the beautiful nily. None are winners, and so the uncertainty attached to the result will lend additional interest to the race.

A race at a mile and a sixteenth with Sir George H. Van, Glenloch, Brussels, Bayler and others named to go ought also make a good race.

The other events have filled well and may produce some interesting sport. The track will be dry and in fairly good condition.

The entries are as follows:

First Race—Purse $400; for maidens; selling; five furlongs. 117 Harry George..... 99 120 Montpelier..... 99 121 Criterion..... 99 122 Atlantic City..... 99 123 Catherine Colt..... 99 124 Longing gelding..... 99
